

JOHN DEWEY HIGH SCHOOL
Sol Levine, Principal

DEPARTMENT
Ivan Rubin, Chairman

STUDENT CONTRACT FOR AN INDIVIDUAL PROJECT

DATE: April 30, 1976 GUIDANCE COUNSELOR: KARLIN

CYCLE: 5 PROJECT ADVISOR: Lasky

STUDENT'S NAME: KAMINSKY Michela I. D. NO. 7475
Last Name First Name

OFFICIAL CLASS: 2506

1. Name of Project: Structural analysis of the head - 6 drawings
life size self portrait

2. Form of Project: (Graphics, Painting, Jewelry, Wood, Sewing, etc.)
Charcoal drawing

3. Objectives: State in behavioral terms what you expect to learn, and what skills you expect to acquire as a result of completing the project. These objectives will also be used in the final evaluation of your project.

I expect to gain a better knowledge of the superficial structure of the head.
I hope to be able to experiment
in other fields with the knowledge gained.

MATERIALS:

1. Charcoal
2. Charcoal paper
3. _____
4. _____

BOOKS:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

4. Meetings to be held with Project Advisor: Students must plan with their Project Advisor three (3) meetings during Resource Center time to continually monitor the ongoing DISK Project. Students must sign the Project Advisor's copy of the DISK Contract at each meeting. STUDENTS WHO DO NOT MEET THIS REQUIREMENT OF THREE MEETINGS A WEEK CANNOT BE GRANTED A DISK.

	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.
Meds

To be completed by.....Cycles 5 Date June 1976

Continued _____
 Dropped _____
 Not Issued _____

[Signature]
Teacher Advisor's Signature

Chairman's Signature

NOTE: Students who will not be in the city during the summer may request DISKS. These DISKS will be in preparation for work that will be completed during the first cycle, for example: A student who has requested a Printmaking DISK will complete nine (9) sketches for three (3) proposed prints. During the first cycle the student will complete these three prints, working with his Teacher-Advisor through meetings three times a week.

STUDENT CONTRACT FOR AN INDIVIDUAL PROJECT

DATE: April 30, 1976 GUIDANCE COUNSELOR: KERLIN

CYCLE: 5 PROJECT ADVISOR: Wasky

STUDENT'S NAME: Kruminsky Michele I. D. NO. 7475
Last Name First Name

OFFICIAL CLASS: 2906

1. Name of Project: Structural analysis of the head & drawings
LIFE SIZE SELF PORTRAIT

2. Form of Project: (Graphics, Painting, Jewelry, Wood, Sewing, etc.)
Charcoal Drawing

3. Objectives: State in behavioral terms what you expect to learn, and what skills you expect to acquire as a result of completing the project. These objectives will also be used in the final evaluation of your project.

I expect to gain a fuller knowledge of the structural structure of the head, I hope to be able to experiment in other fields with the knowledge gained.

MATERIALS:

1. Charcoal
2. Charcoal paper
3. _____
4. _____

BOOKS:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

4. Meetings to be held with Project Advisor: Students must plan with their Project Advisor three (3) meetings during Resource Center time to continually monitor the ongoing DISK Project. Students must sign the Project Advisor's copy of the DISK Contract at each meeting. STUDENTS WHO DO NOT MEET THIS REQUIREMENT OF THREE MEETINGS A WEEK CANNOT BE GRANTED A DISK.

Mon. Tue. Wed. Thu. Fri.
Mode

To be completed by.....Cycle 5 Date June 76

Continued _____
Dropped _____
NI Issued _____

Teacher Advisor's Signature

Chairman's Signature

NOTE: Students who will not be in the city during the summer may request DISKS. These DISKS will be in preparation for work that will be completed during the first cycle, for example: A student who has requested a Printmaking DISK will complete nine (9) sketches for three (3) proposed prints. During the first cycle the student will complete these three prints, working with his Teacher-Advisor through meetings three times a week.